120. HUMAN DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

1. Purpose

The Board believes that human development instruction should be a part of the public school program and be shared by the public schools, home and church.

The primary purposes of human development Instruction is to promote more wholesome family and interpersonal relationships, to help young people understand their sex role and to develop healthy habits and moral values.

2. Authority

The Board believes that human development is a continuing process throughout life and therefore must be planned for the entire school experience of the child.
