2. Authority	The Board may elect to have certain functions performed by professional employes despite the fact that such functions are not controlled by certification and tenure law. when this occurs, such actions shall be deemed to be discretionary actions by the Board without intent to have such functions considered as professional employe actions governed by tenure. Such functions may include: evening and adult school teachers or instructors not regularly employed, extracurricular and other extra pay duty, home-bound instructors not regularly employed, special teachers, summer school teachers, non-certificated aides and any position in which provision for tenure is not made by law.		10
